Courage is not living without fear, courage is being scared to death and doing the right thing anyway.

When designing the City of Columbus Fire Station No. 3 we didn't leave out any details. Rejuvenating a deserted training site, the newest and largest station for the City of Columbus was designed as the gateway to the south side of the city. Its iconic tower, reminiscent of a historic hose dryer tower, features backlit red panels and the Division of Fire logo as it looks over the community.

With much of the building flooded with natural light, physical energy is promoted and aids the firehouse as it seeks LEED® Gold Certification from the USGBC.

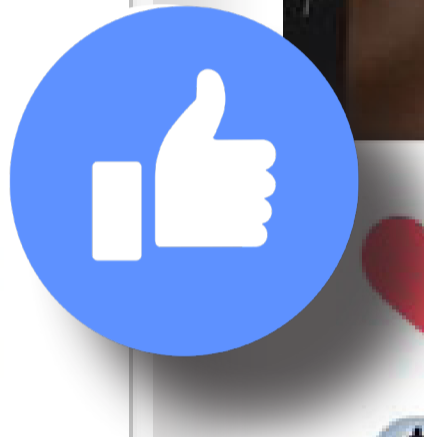

Our work in the community not only represents our firm but the honor we have for our first responders.

It's the last day of #nationalburgermonth + we're celebrating by drooling over the interior mood board for our favorites at @v...e's new headquarters.

We're taking a bite out of creating the best place for the greatest companies and it's soooooo good. 🍔
